

Well Done!

A huge well done and thank you to all of the children for their hard work, determination and perseverance this week. A special well done to our certificate winners:

Oscar Rathmell - Special Award Fantastic attitude to playing and learning.

Clayton Bird - 2 x Special Award for fantastic story writing.

Kieran Manson - Special Award for lovely handwriting and presentation.

Isobel Bucknall - Revision with Perseverance and Determination.

Congratulations to all our award winners this week. Keep up the good work!

Cookery Demonstration Delicious Desserts

I must start by saying another huge thank you to FOSS and Mr & Mrs Jackson for delivering such a fantastic cookery demonstration on the 4th May. It was greatly enjoyed by all and I look forward to hopefully sampling some 'simply delicious desserts' soon! Thanks also to everybody who attended and helped to raise £183.45 for the school library area. Improvements will allow groups to enjoy the area comfortably and help to develop a life-long love of reading.

End of Half Term Assembly

As you are all aware, Mrs Speake soon be going on maternity leave. She has set her date for Wednesday, 22nd May and we would therefore, like to invite all the parents to come along to our 'End of Half Term Assembly. We want wish her all the best and thank her for all her tireless work she does with the Infant class and the whole of the school.

What have the Infants done this week?

This week, the Infants have started learning the story 'The Tiger who came to Tea'. They have produced some fantastic writing in the preparation for the own stories next week. Our green beans have started to grow and we are enjoying observing them over time. We have also sewn cress seeds to investigate what plants need to grow. Reception are eagerly watching our think tank to try and spot what's growing inside.

Bags2school

FOSS are happy to report that they have raised £58 from the kind donations of filled bags2school and would like to take this opportunity to thank you for all your help.

Bun Friday's

We are happy to announce that Bun Friday's starts again on the 7th June. The buns will be sold at the school gates by the FOSS team. They are looking for volunteers to help bake cakes and if you would like to offer your kind help would you see Jo Atkinson.

What have the Juniors done this week?

In literacy this week the Juniors have started to plan their desert island settings, building up to a dilemma regarding whether or not we should try to escape. We have also started to plan an expedition to a desert island, focussing on what living things need to survive. Next week is SATs week for the year 6 children, who are able to come in to school from 8:30am for some breakfast and last-minute preparation regarding any areas of learning that they might be worried about.
