Staff News

It is with great sadness that Sarah Atkinson has announced her decision to step down from her position of Headteacher, effective from 31st December. It has been an extremely difficult decision for Sarah but one which has been made with the best interests of the school at heart.

The Local Authority has worked with an Academy Trust based in York to secure the best leadership solution for the school moving on into 2018. These plans will be considered by the Trust board this week and we will be able to share them with you next week.
